

Gemmological Association of Great Britain

Services include reports for diamond grading, pearl and gem identification. Also provide re-polishing diagrams for diamonds and verbal assessments for diamond colour and clarity

Gemmological Association of Great Britain

| Homepage | Address | Contact |
|--|---|--|
| www.gem-a.info/ | 27 Greville Street Saffron Hill London EC1N 8TN United Kingdom (Great Britain) | N: Jack Ogden T: +44 (0) 20 7404 3334 F: +44 (0) 20 7404 8843 E: information@gem-a.com |

Gem-A, which began as a Gemmological Committee of the National Association of Goldsmiths, first introduced a gemmology qualification in 1908 in order to encourage jewelers to understand the gems they were selling and to identify the fakes.

See Alexandrite Tsarstone collectors guide, Gemmological Association of Great Britain, <http://www.alexandrite.net/viewpage.html?id=WDD-003-00022>
(Description may include but is not limited to: an abstract, a table of contents, a graphical representation, or a free-text account of the resource.) (as of).